

The Ulster-Poughkeepsie LINK Connection to Metro-North

Traveling from Ulster County to New York City is now easier than ever. The Ulster-Poughkeepsie LINK shuttle bus delivers you to Metro-North express trains at Poughkeepsie Station all day, seven days a week (except major holidays).

See the above Ulster LINK route map for free Park & Ride locations in Rosendale (existing lot across from Rec Center), New Paltz (next to New Paltz Auto center on Rt. 32), and Highland (intersection of Rts. 299 and 9W). SUNY New Paltz students, catch the bus at the HAR Shelter on campus and ride for free when you show your student identification card. If you commute every day, a monthly UniTicket adds just $40.00 to your monthly rail fare, and gives you unlimited bus and rail trips. UniTickets are available at all Metro-North station ticket offices and ticket machines, through a Mail&Ride "monthly-ticket-by-mail" subscription, or online through WebTicket. See other rail ticket types and one-way bus fares on the Metro-North/Ulster LINK fare table.

For more information on Metro-North schedules and fares, visit www.mta.info, or call (212) 532-4900.
