Online Auction of Abandoned Vehicles

The City of Poughkeepsie will conduct an online auction of abandoned vehicles beginning Monday January 25, 2010 at 12:00 noon and ending Tuesday February 9, 2010. The online auctions are scheduled to close in the order they are listed, with items closing sequentially every five minutes, beginning at 6:00 pm. There are approximately 30 items included in this auction.

The auction merchandise can be viewed at www.auctionsinternational.com, a professional auction company from Buffalo, NY. Each auction listing contains e-mail contact information to assist interested parties who have questions about the vehicles.

Inspection of vehicles will be from 9:00 AM – 12:00 Noon, Wednesday January 27, 2010 at the DPW complex located at 26 Howard Street, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601.

The City of Poughkeepsie first contracted with Auctions International in 2008 to increase the return on surplus machinery and vehicles. The auction firm has an established base of dedicated followers of government surplus auctions, who are specifically interested in this type of merchandise. The auction firm also sells surplus for Nassau, Suffolk, and Westchester and Rockland counties, and scores of municipal and government agencies throughout the Northeast.

Interested parties can contact the auctioneers directly for more information about the auction process at (800) 536-1401, Monday through Friday from 9:00am to 5:00pm.
